

Leah Moradi

Atlanta, GA, 30328 | Medford, MA, 02155 | P: (770) 820-8619 | leahmoradi@gmail.com

Portfolio and Published Work: leemoradi.github.io/my_portfolio_site/

SUMMARY

Driven and academically focused Philosophy and Political Science student with a passion for advocacy, political theory, and civic engagement. Eager to apply critical thinking and analytical skills in impactful roles, particularly those exploring public policy and legal theories.

EDUCATION

TUFTS UNIVERSITY

Bachelor of Arts

Majors in Philosophy and Political Science

Cumulative GPA: 3.78/4.0; Dean's List Student

Medford, MA

Expected May 2027

EXPERIENCE

Office of Senator Liz Miranda

Spring 2026 Intern

Boston, MA

January 2026–Present

- Design and maintain a centralized legislative tracking database for all bills filed by Senator Liz Miranda during the 2026 session, standardizing data on policy areas, committee assignments, bill status, and equity impacts.
- Track committee assignments, hearings, and bill status to support advocacy strategy and internal reporting.
- Analyze legislation by policy area and district impact to inform policy alignment and advocacy engagement.

Crohn's & Colitis Foundation – New England Chapter

Development and Operations Summer 2025 Intern

Needham, MA

June 2025–August 2025

- Researched background materials and authored a published op-ed advocating for the Safe Step and Restroom Access Acts, highlighting patient rights and the need for equitable healthcare policy reform.
- Developed resources and programs to support patients, caregivers, and school professionals navigating chronic illness accommodations.
- Drafted communications, assisted with program logistics, and contributed to content advancing equity, access, and advocacy for individuals with chronic illnesses.

CAMPUS LEADERSHIP

J Street U - Tufts

Chapter President

Medford, MA

August 2025–Present

- Lead campus chapter of J Street U, a national nonprofit promoting peace, non-violence, and humanitarian values in the Near East through diplomatic dialogue and Jewish moral principles.
- Represent the chapter at regional fundraising events and national advocacy campaigns.
- Lobby local and state legislators on policies addressing West Bank settler violence and promoting peace-oriented U.S. foreign policy.
- Organize educational events, including speaker panels, movie screenings, and campus discussions on peacebuilding and human rights.

Tufts Persian Students Association

Events Coordinator

Medford, MA

August 2025–Present

- Plan and coordinate cultural, educational, and social programming to promote Persian heritage and foster community among Tufts students.

JumboVote

Democracy Representative

Medford, MA

February 2025–Present

- Organize advocacy and voter education initiatives to bridge the gap between students and local, state, and federal policy.

SKILLS

Professional: Research, Critical Thinking, Creative Problem-Solving, Effective Communication, Inquisitive, Organizational
Computer: R, Python (e.g., Pandas, Matplotlib), HTML, Salesforce, Microsoft Office Suite, Google Workspace, Canva
Languages: English (Native), Hebrew (Proficient), Farsi (Conversational)